Flag Bearer Uniform Issue Agreement

I, _____ hereby have been issued the uniform items listed below by the Central Coast Commemoration Guard (CCCG) or unit, and I understand and agree to all the policies outlined in this document.

New member will be issued the listed uniform items documented below. Uniforms may differ based on availability. Uniforms are provided at no cost to flag bearers and are considered CCCG property. Upon issue uniforms become the responsibility of the member but owned by CCCG.

- As a member of CCCG, I will wear the designated uniform declared here and represent the unit brand by upholding a professional image. A professional image including proper personal hygiene, clean and well-maintained facial hair, long hair held in pony tail.
- As a member of CCCG, I will keep uniforms neat, clean and in good condition at all times. Members are responsible for the proper maintenance, laundering and care of these items. This includes laundering the uniform regularly.
- If the uniform needs to be replaced owing to normal wear and tear, the unit will replace it at no expense to the member.
- If anything outside of normal wear and tear results in the need for a replacement, the replacement will be at the member's expense. Patches and emblems are not to be removed from the uniforms.
- During the course of membership, flag bearer uniforms will remain the property of CCCG
- Upon termination of membership, or upon CCCG Management committee request, uniforms are expected to be returned in a reasonable state and in their entirety.
- Boots are not supplied by CCCG and are to be black lace-up style, polished to shine.
- Training uniforms are not supplied and can be purchased from CCCG. They are to be worn with black pants or shorts, army green socks and boots. Camo T-hirt $30 • Black /Red Baseball Cap $30
